Perhaps a Little Harsh.

In the article published in the Daily News of the 11th, stating that Walter W. Rush had been arrested for wife desertion, we probably rendered judgement on the case prematurely. Mr. Rush waived preliminary hearing, and as his case will not come up for some time yet, his side of the story may change the color of the case as it may now appear on its face. The Daily News has no desire to do any man an injustice.

Nearly all of the racers were speeding, yesterday, on the beach.

The music at the different churches, yesterday, was above the average. At the Episcopal church a voluntary, "The Plains of Peace," by Mrs. Mary Jacobs Waite, was excellently rendered.

Bookmakers Will be Here.

Many members of the Metropolitan Turf Association will be in Daytona during the automobile races to lay bets on the events. It will be hard to pick the winners of races in which the elements of danger figure so prominently.

A Limerick.

And said, with a manner quite pedantic,
"I'll know how it feels

But he stopped her with motions quite frantic.

One hundred and seventy poll tax receipts were issued Friday by County Tax Collector Smith for the residents of Daytona. Saturday was the last day on which to pay poll tax in order to vote in the coming city election.

"Packed houses was the state of affairs at Miles Orton's show both at the performances of the afternoon and evening. Much was expected of the performance, and no one came away disappointed. The show proved to be a decided revelation to all who had the pleasure of witnessing the big program of events."—Evening Times, Cumberland, Md.

37 SECONDS BEATS THE RECORD

Bowden in a 60 h. p. Mercedes Makes a Mile in Unofficial Time Of 37 Seconds.

When the northeastern now prevailing ceases, the beach will undoubtedly be as fast, if not faster, than it was last year. Even in its present condition Barney Oldfield, with his Green Dragon, covered a mile in :40.4, and had the accident not occured, much better time would have been made.

H. L. Bowden, with his 90 h. p. Mercedes, the Flying Dutchman, covered a mile yesterday morning in 37 seconds. This, of course, is not an official record, but it indicates what speed may be obtained in the official races.

Mr. Bowden has a 120 h. p. Mercedes, the longest car ever seen here, which has not yet been out for trial. It is thought that this powerful racer will reduce this trial speed record several seconds. Racers who ought to know what they are talking about are now predicting an official mile record being made of 32 seconds or even better.

The run made yesterday was under the same prevailing conditions as obtained last year when Vanderbilt made the world's record of :39. A strong northeaster was blowing and the beach was in fine condition, though somewhat slower than last year.

The Miami Metropolis has changed hands, the property passing into the hands of the Dean Brothers, of the West Palm Beach News and a newspaper man from Alabama.

H. Billhartz, wife and daughter, Chicago; Mrs. Rosa F. Harrell, Miss Elizabeth Harrell, Henderson, N. C.; W. Hubbard, Atlanta; A. H. Bordsal, Cincinnati are at The Austin.

The Daytona Daily News has made its appearance for the season and is brim full of spicy news. The Daily News is published during January, February and March by Editor Crouch of the Gazette-News. —De Land Record.

An Old Favorite

ONWARD, CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

By Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould

THE Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould, author and traveler (born 1834), holds high rank among popular living English writers. The list of his books in prose and verse contains more than eighty titles and covers a wide variety of religious and secular topics. The hymn given below is one of a large number written by Mr. Baring-Gould and has been exceedingly popular as a marching song for religious bodies.

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the royal master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, his banners go.

Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod:
We are not divided—
All one body we;
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

Onward, then, ye people;
Join our happy throng;
Blend with ours your voices,
In triumphant song—
Glory, laud and honor
Unto Christ the King.
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.

At Ormond are located William Wallace, with his F. I. A. T racer, H. L. Bowden, with two Mercedes, one 90 h. p. and one 120 h. p., and Louis Ross, with his Stanley Steamer. H. L. Bowden has also two other pleasure cars with him.

E. C. Walker and wife, Quay, Fla.; Mrs. D. G. Curtis, son and daughter, Warren, Pa.; C. F. Ober, B. L. O'Brian, Beverly, Mass.; G. H. Wilkinson, New Smyrna, Fla.; W. O. Bellam, J. M. Smith and wife, Jacksonville, are at Schmidt's Villa.

Mrs. M. Thorpe, Miss V. Thorpe, and Frank Thorpe, prominent society people in Cincinnati, are again in the city, guests of The Austin. The party will leave for Nassau shortly, where Mrs. Thorpe goes to regain her health. These ladies are well-known here and their many friends speak highly of their culture and amiability.

FAST TIME MADE BY PEERLESS

Touring Car in its Run From Daytona to DeLand, Time One Hour and Twenty Minutes.

As stated in Saturday's Daily News, the big Peerless touring car, driven by Barney Oldfield, made the run to DeLand in two hours and twenty minutes, the Daily News taking the starting time and getting the finish by wire from DeLand.

This record, while better than any known to have been made, not fast for a car of this make, the slow time being due to ignorance of the road by the famous chauffeur and then, too, Mr. Oldfield had trouble with a tire, which had to be replaced.

On the return trip, however, the remarkable time of one hour and twenty minutes was made. After seating the party in the car, Mr. Oldfield called up the Daily News office from Cottage Arms, DeLand, and said, "We are starting." The time was then 2:40 p. m. At 4:00 p. m. the reporter heard the tooting of a horn and looking out, was surprised to see W. H. Peters and Barney frantically waving at him.

The distance from here to DeLand is said to be anywhere from 21 to 25 miles. We are unable to give the exact mileage, but will soon have the distance positively known, if a rodometer tells the truth.

Capt. Sonderman has received a new speed wheel for the Wiggler, which he has entered in the motor boat races at Palm Beach.

That Trip Around the World, which is to take place tonight under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Society of the Seabreeze avenue M. E. Church, is a trip with stations decorated and refreshments served representing the country visited. It isn't at any one house but at six and you get it all for 50 cents. Hack fare, refreshments, entertainment in the country visited and lots of fun on the road. Don't forget, this evening, first hack leaves at 7 p. m.

Bank Stockholders Meet.

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Volusia County Bank of DeLand, of which the Merchants Bank, of this city, is a branch, held a meeting at DeLand last week.

Officers for the year 1905 were re-elected as follows: A. D. McBride, president; Frank E. Bond, cashier; S. A. Wood, assistant cashier, (Volusia County Bank); F. N. Conrad, assistant cashier, (Merchants Bank); F. J. Niver, teller, (Merchants Bank).

An examination of the affairs of the banks revealed a most satisfactory condition, and a ten per cent. dividend was declared.

As a mark of appreciation to the employees for services rendered, a present of five per cent. of their annual salary was given them.

The directors elected for the ensuing year were as follows: A. D. McBride, Frank E. Bond, J. B. Conrad, F. N. Conrad, S. A. Wood, C. A. Miller, A. S. Munson, F. R. Osborne and Geo. E. Davis.

F. E. C. A. A. Greets Sir Thomas.

The first annual banquet of the American Automobile Association was held last night at the Waldorf-Astoria, the date having been changed so as not to interfere with the program. President Steck sent a telegram yesterday to Charles H. Hyde, president of the New York Motor Club, Banquet room of Waldorf-Astoria, which read as follows:

"In the midst of preparations for the greatest automobile race meeting ever held, the F. E. C. A. A. halts to send hearty welcome and kindly greetings to Sir Thomas Dewar and the New York Motor Club. Drink to true sportsmanship which acknowledges no territorial boundaries.

Pick Haney went to Jacksonville on business this morning.

Mrs. Clark H. Ransom and child, St. Paul; D. H. Kingsland, J. S. Van Sielen and wife, New York; Harry A. Vaughan, are at the Grand Atlantic.

There are 30 autos in Ormond now, 8 of which arrived Saturday.

THE GAZETTE-NEWS is a weekly news-paper published at Daytona, Florida, by Geo. F. Crouch, in the interest of Daytona and vicinity, is Democratic in political flavor, and is an advocate of prosperity, peace and good roads for our citizens. Its columns are devoted to bringing before our readers a brief and authentic account of the happenings of this place and of the adjoining communities. Our local writers are ever on the lookout for news items and are assisted by good correspondents from all nearby towns.

The Northerner who spends his winters here, the occasional winter resident, or those who are now making their first visit to our City, could invest no money where it would give them greater enjoyment for a year than $1.50 spent for a subscription to the GAZETTE-NEWS. In the course of a year it will tell the Northern reader what Daytona really is, and if our section of the country would be better suited to him than his present location.

As to health, we firmly believe that Daytona is as heathy a location as any spot in the United States, and is briefly quoted as "Daytona is lost Paradise regained." To tell even briefly our advantages over other sections of the country in Health, Investments, Pleasures, and a place one can call Home, would consume too much space. And as a suggestion, for your personal enjoyment and business relations in the South, that you subscribe now for the GAZETTE-NEWS. We would be pleased to count you as a "Daytona advocate" and a GAZETTE-NEWS Reader.

The C. O. D. Man

He Tells How He Wrote Poetry and Lived High.

"THAT'S all O. K.," said the C. O. D. man as he received and pocketed a coin of the last vintage. "The C. O. D. system, on which I have been doing business for the last five years, saves bookkeeping, banking and lots of other trouble. You get what you pay for, and I get the money, and neither of us has to send out a collector.

"As a dilapidated gentleman, making a tour of the country every year, I have no rating in the commercial agencies, and as an interviewer your checks might be marked 'N. G.' at the bank. Now, to proceed.

"Three years ago I was up in Connecticut on the wander, and as my old shoes, which, by the way, once belonged to a member of the legislature of that state and were run down at the heel, had blistered my feet, I looked for a place to lay up for three or four days and take things easy.

"I CAME TO A GOOD LOOKING FARMHOUSE."

"You can understand by that I was willing to do light work for some farmer for a bed in the haymow and a few meals in the wood shed. That's the difference between a professional tramp and a dilapidated gentleman. The one won't work under any circumstances, while the other quits the road occasionally to take up the hoe.

"Along about sundown I came to a good looking farmhouse with a middle aged woman sitting on the piazza. I opened the gate to be told to go on about my business, and though I offered to work for my board the terms were refused. I was turning away when the woman suddenly changed her mind and called me back and said:

"'Perhaps you are not a regular tramp?'

"'No, ma'am, I'm not. I'm only a dilapidated gentleman making a farewell tour of Connecticut.'

"'What is a dilapidated gentleman?' she asked as she looked me over in a puzzled way.

"'It's an ex, ma'am—an ex-Harvard man, an ex-swell young fellow, an ex-son of a millionaire who wouldn't marry the parlor maid his father had picked out for him, an ex-member of society who has become disgusted with the world and taken to sauntering over the country. I can hoe corn or potatoes, cut grass, milk cows, repair fences, sing a song, feed the hogs, write poetry or most anything else.'

"'You say you can write poetry?'

"'I can, ma'am.'

"'Then you may stop tonight, and tomorrow I will talk to you further.'

"I had no idea what she was after in the poetic line," said the C. O. D. man, "but after a good supper, a good bed and a square breakfast she called me into the sitting room and explained that she was a widow. In fact, she was three widows in one. She had married three times and buried three husbands. I started out to sympathize with her, but she hinted that she was going to change her name soon for the fourth time and wasn't looking for condolence. She wanted poetry instead. She hadn't erected a gravestone for any of the three yet, but was going to give an order for the trio in a bunch, and she wanted something better than 'Sacred to the memory of ——,' etc. I got her idea of what she wanted, and she said she'd give me board and lodging for a week if I hit it. I took pencil and paper to the barn and sat down, and in about an hour I was ready to show her the following:

"I grieve for Thomas lying here—
  In health I ne'er forsook him.
But held his hand until the last
  And wept when death o'ertook him.

"Full kind and gentle Thomas was;
  His nature it was cheerful.
And, though he died long years agone,
  His widow still is tearful.

"That seemed to dispose of No. 1 all right," said the C. O. D. man, "and I sharpened my pencil and went after No. 2. It wasn't much of an effort to get off the following and add an extra verse for his being 'next:'

"For thirty days James Speedwell lay
  Upon his bed a-dying.
And all this time the doctor, he
  To save his life was trying.

"But death had marked him for his own—
  A case it was of fever—
And, though he clung to his dear wife,
  He had to die and leave her.

"Her love for him will always last;
  His kindness she'll remember.
Her tears will ever fall for him
  In May or in December.

"That brought me down to No. 3," said the poet, "and as I had lots of time I did the handsome thing by him as follows:

"And now we come to Henry Clay,
  So wise and [illegible] tender
That if he is an [illegible]
  His neighbors [illegible]der.

"No unkind w[illegible]ed his lips,
  No word but [illegible]ken;
He thought the world of his dear wife
  Until his back was broken.

"One summer's day he hied him forth
  Into the field for haying.
And one short hour had only passed
  When he was found a-laying.

"His back was broken and his neck
  Was also badly twisted.
And, though a doctor came at once,
  On dying he insisted.

"He died at sunset, noble man,
  And he was duly buried.
And ne'er will Henry be forgot,
  Though oft his widow's married.

"When I submitted my humble effort for criticism," said the poet, "the widow kicked a bit over the last two lines of the last verse, but after thinking it over for a couple of hours she came to the conclusion that it was all right. For five days I had nothing to do but sleep, eat and lie in the shade, and when I at length jogged on she made up a suit of clothes for me out of what the three lamenteds had left and added a fifty cent piece and her blessing.

"That was the only time I ever entered the field against Longfellow, and I came out of the contest better than I hoped for."

Lack of Order.

It is astonishing how all of us are generally cumbered up with the thousand and one hindrances and duties which are not such, but which nevertheless wind us about with their spider threads and fetter the movement of our wings. It is the lack of order which makes us slaves. The confusion of today discounts the freedom of tomorrow.

The

Gazette-News

THE GAZETTE-NEWS is a weekly newspaper published at Daytona, Florida, by Geo. F. Crouch, in the interest of Daytona and vicinity, is Democratic in political flavor, and is an advocate of prosperity, peace and good roads for our citizens. Its columns are devoted to bringing before our readers a brief and authentic account of the happenings of this place and of the adjoining communities. Our local writers are ever on the lookout for news items and are assisted by good correspondents from all nearby towns.

The Northerner who spends his winters here, the occasional winter resident, or those who are now making their first visit to our City, could invest no money where it would give them greater enjoyment for a year than $1.50 spent for a subscription to the GAZETTE-NEWS. In the course of a year it will tell the Northern reader what Daytona really is, and if our section of the country would be better suited to him than his present location.

As to health, we firmly believe that Daytona is as heathy a location as any spot in the United States, and is briefly quoted as "Daytona is lost Paradise regained." To tell even briefly our advantages over other sections of the country in Health, Investments, Pleasures, and a place one can call Home, would consume too much space. And as a suggestion, for your personal enjoyment and business relations in the South, that you subscribe now for the GAZETTE-NEWS. We would be pleased to count you as a "Daytona advocate" and a GAZETTE-NEWS Reader.

The C. O. D. Man

He Tells How He Wrote Poetry and Lived High.

"THAT'S all O. K.," said the C. O. D. man, as he received and pocketed a coin of the last vintage. "The C. O. D. system, on which I have been doing business for the last five years, saves bookkeeping, banking and lots of other trouble. You get what you pay for, and I get the money, and neither of us has to send out a collector.

"As a dilapidated gentleman, making a tour of the country every year, I have no rating in the commercial agencies, and as an interviewer your checks might be marked 'N. G.' at the bank. Now, to proceed.

"Three years ago I was up in Connecticut on the wander, and as my old shoes, which, by the way, once belonged to a member of the legislature of that state and were run down at the heel, had blistered my feet, I looked for a place to lay up for three or four days and take things easy.

"I CAME TO A GOOD LOOKING FARMHOUSE."

"You can understand by that I was willing to do light work for some farmer for a bed in the haymow and a few meals in the wood shed. That's the difference between a professional tramp and a dilapidated gentleman. The one won't work under any circumstances, while the other quits the road occasionally to take up the hoe.

"Along about sundown I came to a good looking farmhouse with a middle aged woman sitting on the piazza. I opened the gate to be told to go on about my business, and though I offered to work for my board the terms were refused. I was turning away when the woman suddenly changed her mind and called me back and said:

"'Perhaps you are not a regular tramp?'

"'No, ma'am, I'm not. I'm only a dilapidated gentleman making a farewell tour of Connecticut.'

"'What is a dilapidated gentleman?' she asked as she looked me over in a puzzled way.

"'It's an ex, ma'am—an ex-Harvard man, an ex-swell young fellow, an ex-son of a millionaire who wouldn't marry the parlor maid his father had picked out for him, an ex-member of society who has become disgusted with the world and taken to sauntering over the country. I can hoe corn or potatoes, cut grass, milk cows, repair fences, sing a song, feed the hogs, write poetry or most anything else.'

"'You say you can write poetry?'

"'I can, ma'am.'

"'Then you may stop tonight, and tomorrow I will talk to you further.'

"I had no idea what she was after in the poetic line," said the C. O. D. man, "but after a good supper, a good bed and a square breakfast she called me into the sitting room and explained that she was a widow. In fact, she was three widows in one. She had married three times and buried three husbands. I started out to sympathize with her, but she hinted that she was going to change her name soon for the fourth time and wasn't looking for condolence. She wanted poetry instead. She hadn't erected a gravestone for any of the three yet, but was going to give an order for the trio in a bunch, and she wanted something better than 'Sacred to the memory of ——,' etc. I got her idea of what she wanted, and she said she'd give me board and lodging for a week if I hit it. I took pencil and paper to the barn and sat down, and in about an hour I was ready to show her the following:

"I grieve for Thomas lying here—
In health I ne'er forsook him.
But held his hand until the last
And wept when death o'ertook him.

"Full kind and gentle Thomas was;
His nature it was cheerful.
And, though he died long years agone,
His widow still is tearful.

"That seemed to dispose of No. 1 all right," said the C. O. D. man, "and I sharpened my pencil and went after No. 2. It wasn't much of an effort to get off the following and add an extra verse for his being 'next:'

"For thirty days James Speedwell lay
Upon his bed a-dying,
And all this time the doctor, he
To save his life was trying.

"But death had marked him for his own—
A case it was of fever—
And, though he clung to his dear wife,
He had to die and leave her.

"Her love for him will always last;
His kindness she'll remember.
Her tears will ever fall for him
In May or in December.

"That brought me down to No. 3," said the poet, "and as I had lots of time I did the handsome thing by him as follows:

"And now we come to Henry Clay,
So wise and [illegible] tender
That if he is an [illegible]
His neighbors [illegible]der.

"No unkind w[illegible]ed his lips,
No word [illegible]ken;

He thought the world of his dear wife
Until his back was broken.

"One summer's day he hied him forth
Into the field for haying,
And one short hour had only passed
When he was found a-laying.

"His back was broken and his neck
Was also badly twisted,
And, though a doctor came at once,
On dying he insisted.

"He died at sunset, noble man,
And he was duly buried,
And ne'er will Henry be forgot,
Though oft his widow's married.

"When I submitted my humble effort for criticism," said the poet, "the widow kicked a bit over the last two lines of the last verse, but after thinking it over for a couple of hours she came to the conclusion that it was all right. THE WEATHER.

Cold tonight. Tuesday cloudy and warmer.

*Go Around the World tonight on the peninsula, round trip 50c.

Mrs. Oldfield took her first ride in a racer on the beach, yesterday.

P. R. Robinson and wife, of Philadelphia, are guests of The Parkinson.

Wm. Maley, of Haverstraw, N. Y., and F. H. Pillsbury and wife, Vermont, are Despland guests.

T. M. Allen, Jos. Allen, J. G. Storer, S. S. Smith, of Pittsburg, Pa., are at The Cleveland.

*Only 50c Around the World tonight on the peninsula.

Rev. J. E. Mickler, who has been suffering from the effects of a severe cold is reported as improving.

Judge and Mrs McCrory, of De Land, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. E. Mickler.

J. N. Beach, of Linden, Ind., a guest of The Nassau, paid The DAILY NEWS a pleasant call this morning.

W. H. Mitchell and wife and J. L. Stephens, guests of the Hotel Ormond, drove down to call on their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett today.

*Around the World for 50c, tonight on the peninsula.

Mr. Christy has taken several ladies for rides in his racer. They seem to enjoy the ride, but don't like the noise.

J. R. Jewett, professor of Arabic in the Chicago University, and family are occupying the Fitzgerald cottage for the season.

O. T. Humphrey and wife, A. C. Vickery and Mrs. Wm. Kiler, who have been on a visit to Palm Beach for a few days, have returned and are again at The Parkinson.

Property on Loomis avenue is on a boom. Mrs. Bert Williamson has bought the Wightman place and Mr. C. McCoy has moved his cottage on the back end of his lot and will build a larger house in front.

T. B. Leigh, of Cleveland, O., arrived last week and is stopping at the Lone Bay, Goodall. Mr. Leigh paid the DAILY NEWS a visit this morning.

It will take two hours to make the trip allowing fifteen minutes at each station.

*For charter Marion and Spruce Creek and other boats for fishing parties or cruising. Van & Johnson, Conrad s Dock. sat14

The St. Augustine Evening Record has been enlarged and much improved. Harry L. Brown, the managing editor, is a well-trained and experienced newspaper man, whose successful management of the paper is a foregone conclusion. We heartily welcome every issue.

Rev. Wm. Ashmead Schaeffer, Mrs. Ashmead Schaeffer, Miss Bessie R. Wood, Miss Florence M. Wood, of Germantown, Pa., arrived Friday night, January 13, and are at The Bennett till they get their beautiful home on Ridgewood ready for occupancy.

Mrs. James M. Rude, Covington, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoffman, Hagertown, Md.; Miss Emma Whittep, Pittsburg, Pa.; Miss Katherine Killian, Alleghany, Pa.; Mrs. Margaret F. McGeary, Sewickley, Pa.; Mrs. Wm. Van Hart, Cincinnati, O.; Mr. E. B. Houghton, Miss E. M. Houghton, Toronto, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Luce, Minneapolis, Minn., are guests of The Bennett.

W. D Taxberry, Windsor, Vt.; T. D. Bishop, New Haven, Ct.; E. A. Freeman, Camden, N. J.; Mrs. M. A. Brown, Mrs. Robert W. Fitzell, Philadelphia. C. W. Richardson, Jacksonville; C. W. Summerfield and wife, Fayetteville, W. Va.; D. Lees, Philadelphia; W. F. Brill, Omaha; N. F. Wright, Oswego, N. Y.; H. C. Hammond, Wellsville, O.; are at The Ridgewood.

Representatives of a Biograph company have arrived to take pictures of the coming races. Saturday night they will give an exhibit at Ormond, which will include the Eagle Mountain climb, the Vanderbilt race and other noted races. They ought to be secured to give an exhibit here. This is a rare opportunity to see such interesting events.

A private office, 10x10 has been built for R. S. Maley by McClellan & Edwards. The woodwork is of pine, carefully selected for the beauty of the grain, which, finished in oil, makes an appearance which could not be improved upon.

Mr. Mortimer Courtney, who has been residing in Daytona, for some time past, arrived in Palm Beach last Friday and spent the day there with friends. Mr. Courtney left last Saturday morning for Miami, where he has accepted a position on the Daily Metropolis.

*That Trip Around the World is tonight. Yes 50c includes all.

A bet of $100 was made last night, that two racers would make the mile in less than 30 seconds.

Philander Pickering and wife, T. M. Reese and wife, S. P. Jennings, New Castle, Ind., are at The St. James.

Jacob H. Lintz and wife of Kenton, O., who have been guests of The Palmetto, left for Lake Helen, yesterday. They will return later for an extended sojourn here.

Property owners along Pine street, on the peninsula, have given ten feet and the street will be made 55 feet wide, instead of thirty, the present width.

Wilford Russell and wife will aid the Protestant Episcopal church in their concert, to be given shortly, for the purpose of raising funds to build a chapel in Seabreeze.

Two pretty girls were seen on the beach, carrying a big string of fish, which they claimed to have themselves caught from the pier. They were bashful and would not give the reporter their names.

Ernest Mills filled an order quickly, recently. He got an order from Ormond by phone for thirty quarts of cream and, having none on hand, he froze and delivered the cream in Ormond within two hours.

*The differences between McClellan & Edwards, Lesses, Daytona Novelty Works and the Carpenters' Union No 1525, was satisfactorily settled, Saturday evening, 14th inst., and the union help has returned to work at the mill. 16-3t

Mrs. W. P. Hatchett, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Morris for the past two weeks, left last Wednesday for Jacksonville where she will join her husband. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. D. C. Morris, who spent a few days in the Metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Russell, of New York, the talented musicians, are at the The St. James. This couple gave recitations and sang comic songs, recently, at The Despland, Colonnades and Clarendon Inn hotels. They appeared recently at the White House and at various of the foreign embassies in Washington. Mr. Russell has also appeared before many noted people in Europe.

Take back at Atwood's Pharmacy or any other station mentioned on the circular.

Presidential Honor Conferred.

Commenting on the appointment of Judge Robert W. Taylor, who is a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. D. Langworthy, the Cleveland Plain Dealer says:

"The Presidential nomination of Robert W. Taylor, former representative in Congress from the old McKinley district, to succeed Judge Wing on the United State Supreme bench in this district, will be a cause of unmixed satisfaction to Clevelanders and Ohians. Mr. Taylor resigned his seat in Congress, abandoning what gave easy promise of being a long and brilliant career in that body, to resume the practice of law, and now receives one of the highest compliments and rewards that the law can hold out to its votaries.

He is now admirably qualified by aptitude, experience, knowledge and character for the high position to which he is called. Mr. Taylor first became a national figure through his connection with the prosecution of the Brigham H. Roberts polygamy case, which ended in the unseating of that malodorous mormon, and has since kept up his good work in the same direction by conducting the fight to unseat Reed Smoot, the mormon senator from Utah.

Even should his new judicial position require him to immediately abandon this cause, he has at least made it easier for others to carry it on. Incidentally, and happily for those Ohioans who resent the apportioning of judicial posts as partisan or factional spoils there has been exhibited in the filling of this vacancy none of the sordid and rancourous squabbling which has preceeded so many appointments to federal positions in this State. Mr. Taylor is acceptable to all factions and to the public as well, a somewhat noteworthy fact. Mr. Taylor's record is clean and his ability acknowledged."

Trouble With the Napery.

"Linen kings" can make trouble easily for the housewife with their three jointed microscopes for determining the number of threads to the inch in any article of table linen. One visited a friend the other night and after dinner exhibited a handkerchief worth at wholesale $1.20 apiece. It was very beautiful under the microscope. The hostess then looked upon a napkin and afterward upon a tablecloth. Now, she thought up to that moment her napery was the finest in the block, and the revelation of the wide meshes caused the most bitter disappointment. Ever since her misery has been complete. When "linen kings" go out socially they had better leave their microscopes at home.—New York Press.

Summerfield and wife, Fayetteville, W. Va; D. Lees, Philadelphia; W. F. Brill, Omaha; N. F. Wright, Oswego, N. Y.; H. C. Hammond, Wellsville, O.; are at The Ridgewood.

Representatives of a Biograph company have arrived to take pictures of the coming races. Saturday night they will give an exhibit at Ormond, which will include the Eagle Mountain climb, the Vanderbilt race and other noted races. They ought to be secured to give an exhibit here. This is a rare opportunity to see such interesting events.

A private office, 10x10 has been built for R. S. Maley by McClellan & Fdwards. The woodwork is of pine, carefully selected for the beauty of the grain, which, finished in oil, makes an appearance which could not be improved upon.

Mr. Mortimer Courtney, who has been residing in Daytona, for some time past, arrived in Palm Beach last Friday and spent the day there with friends. Mr. Courtney left last Saturday morning for Miami, where he has accepted a position on the Daily Metropolis.

*That Trip Around the World is tonight. Yes 50c includes all.

A bet of $400 was made last night, that two racers would make the mile in less than 39 seconds.

Philander Pickering and wife, T. M. Reese and wife, S. P. Jennings, New Castle, Ind., are at The St. James.

Jacob H. Lintz and wife of Kenton, O., who have been guests of The Palmetto, left for Lake Helen, yesterday. They will return later for an extended sojourn here.

Property owners along Pine street, on the peninsula, have given ten feet and the street will be made 55 feet wide, instead of thirty, the present width.

Wilford Russell and wife will aid the Prostestant Episcopal church in their concert, to be given shortly, for the purpose of raising funds to build a chapel in Seabreeze.

Two pretty girls were seen on the beach, carrying a big string of fish, which they claimed to have themselves caught from the pier. They were bashful and would not give the reporter their names,

Ernest Mills filled an order quickly, recently. He got an order from Ormond by phone for thirty quarts of cream and, having none on hand, he froze and delivered the cream in Ormond within two hours.

†The differences between McClellan & Edwards, Lesses, Daytona Novelty Works, and the Carpenters' Union No 1725, was satisfactorily settled, Saturday evening, 14th inst,, and the union help has returned to work at the mill. 16-3t

Mrs. W. P. Hatchett, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. C. Morris for the past two weeks, left last Wednesday for Jacksonville where she will join her husband. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. D. C. Morris, who spent a few days in the Metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Russell, of New York, two talented musicians, are at The St. James. This couple gave recitations and sang comic songs, recently, at The Despland, Colonnades and Clarendon Inn hotels. They appeared recently at the White House and at various of the foreign embassies in Washington. Mr. Russell has also appeared before many noted people in Europe.

Presidential Honor Conferred.

Commenting on the appointment of Judg Robert W. Taylor, who is a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. D. Langworthy, the Cleveland Plain Dealer says:

"The Presidential nomination of Robert W. Taylor, former representative in Congress from the old McKinley district, to succeed Judge Wing on the United State Supreme bench in this district, will be a cause of unmixed satisfaction to Clevelanders and Ohians. Mr. Taylor resigned his seat in Congress, abandoning what gave easy promise of being a long and brilliant career in that body, to resume the practice of law, and now receives one of the highest compliments and rewards that the law can hold out to its votaries.

He is now admirably qualified by aptitude, experience, knowledge and character for the high position to which he is called. Mr. Taylor first became a national figure through his connection with the prosecution of the Brigham H. Roberts polygamy case, which ended in the unseating of that malodorous mormon, and has since kept up his good work in the same direction by conducting the fight to unseat Reed Smoot, the mormon senator from Utah.

Even should his new judicial position require him to immediately abandon this cause, he has at least made it easier for others to carry it on. Incidentally, and happily for those Ohioans who resent the apportioning of judicial posts as partisan or factional spoils there has been exhibited in the filling of this vacancy none of the sordid and rancourous squabbling which has preceeded so many appointments to federal positions in this State. Mr. Taylor is acceptable to all factions and to the public as well, a somewhat noteworthy fact. Mr. Taylor's record is clean and his ability acknowledged."

Trouble With the Napery.

"Linen kings" can make trouble easily for the housewife with their three jointed miscroscopes for determining the number of threads to the inch in any article of table linen. One visited a friend the other night and after dinner exhibited a handkerchief worth at wholesale $1.50 apiece. It was very beautiful under the microscope. The hostess then looked upon a napkin and afterward upon a tablecloth. Now, she thought up to that moment her napery was the finest in the block, and the revelation of the wide meshes caused the most bitter disappointment. Ever since her misery has been complete When "linen kings" go out socially they had better leave their microscopes at home.—New York Press.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lordly live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampelopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages

that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply

which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bared for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbtide, measures about 700 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bared for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbtide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
